Study Programmes at the PH Zug	The University of Teacher Education Zug (PH Zug) offers: Basic teacher training for the pre-school level and primary level. We offer courses in English language for international incoming students on primary level. You can find more information on our website in English and German.
Language Skills	An upper-intermediate level of German (B2) or English (B2) is recommended to take part either in the regular German study programme or the English/bilingual course programme. Students are carefully attended and given support by mentors and students. Language lessons can be organised.
Closing Dates for Applications	April 15th for the following autumn semester / academic year November 1st for the following spring semester More information at incoming.phzg.ch
Accommodation	PH Zug is usually able to place visiting students in a furnished single room with a sink, Wifi and shared bathroom and kitchen, within walking distance from the campus. The monthly rent comes to CHF 450 (approx. EUR 420). This has proven to be a very popular and convenient arrangement. The International Office PH Zug further supports students with information to find accommodation either in shared flats or in private houses. A monthly rent between CHF 600/~550€ and CHF 900/~800€ is to be calculated as an average.
Health Insurance	For international students coming to Switzerland, it is compulsory to have appropriate health insurance. For further information on Swiss health insurance requirements please go to: https://www.studyinswitzerland.plus/health-insurance/
Arrival	It is highly recommended for students to arrive in Zug about a week before the beginning of the semester to well organise themselves and participate in the introduction days prior to the semester.
